basic information to help you plan an exploration of Rocky National Park

It is important to note that GLOBE cannot accept responsibility for your welfare beyond the close of the meeting, nor can it offer, or endorse, any particular post-meeting trip extensions. However, listed above are several activities and tour operators who may be able to help you if you decide to spend additional time in Colorado.

Keep in mind you will need to make your own hotel accommodations, should you plan to remain in Estes Park, beyond the close of the GLOBE event.

Bolder Adventure Travel
Is offering
A One-Day Whitewater Raft Trip on the Colorado River

The experience begins in Estes Park with a 6:45am pickup at the Rocky Mountain Park Inn (on 22 July 2016) for a drive over scenic Trail Ridge Road through beautiful Rocky Mountain National Park. Trail Ridge Road is the highest continuous paved road in the United States. The tour will take you up to 12,183 feet for spectacular views as you cross the continental divide to the western slope of the Rockies.

The Colorado River offers a moderate whitewater trip suitable for the first time and experienced rafter. From the exciting deep canyon rapids to the relaxing scenic float water stretches, this trip has it all.

The Bolder Adventure whitewater trip will take you on a 12-mile stretch of scenic float water, encounter some class II and III rapids like Needles Eye and Yarmony, float by a natural hot springs, as well as some 100+ year old miner cabins. You will be on the water 4-5 hours and stop for a picnic lunch. A riverside deli-style buffet and beverages will be provided. You will return to the Rocky Mountain Park Inn at approximately 6:00pm.

Cost for the trip will be $125USD per person and there is space for 32 people. Reservations will be taken on a first come, first served basis and must be accompanied by a 50% non-refundable deposit. The remaining 50%, also non-refundable, is due on July 8th. This trip will go rain or shine!

Additional information about clothing, equipment, and details about the day will be sent when registration is received.
